ABOUT THE BLOG AND US

We are Katalin and Karol, Hungarian-Polish newlyweds with a baby who travel the world while working remotely. We love nature, car trips, backpacking, and having a bit of luxury while exploring cities.

Our Life, Our Travel blog was launched in March 2016. The blog focuses on outdoors, hiking and family. It motivates our readers to be active and spend free time outdoors as well as shows possibilities of long-term travel with children and location independent life.

WHY WORK WITH US

We have an active audience who is eager to find out about new destinations, products, and services that we use and recommend.
